Custom Question for Half-Term Course Evaluations

Dear Colleagues,

As the half-term courses draw to a close, you have the option to add a custom question to your course evaluation by entering it at OCE custom question by Friday, October 10.

Only one custom question may be submitted per course. If you are team-teaching, please coordinate your submission with your co-instructors. A list of the standard questions can be viewed on the OCE FAQs for YC and GSAS Faculty page.

Students may evaluate half-term courses beginning Monday, October 13. Evaluations submitted for half-term courses will become available for faculty and chairs to view at the end of the term.

Sincerely,

University Registrar's Office
